Stephanie Theofanos

Richmond-based Interior Designer Stephanie Theofanos, Allied ASID, IFDA, began painting and wallpapering at the age of 14. After college, she served as a construction site manager with Habitat for Humanity in New Orleans. Stephanie is the founder and principal of Modern Traditions Interior Design, LLC. Her passions for affordable housing and interior design both reflect her desire to provide warmth and comfort for people in their own homes, also a part of the Pink Chair Project.
