

Information/Media Authorization and Release

I wish to promote the mission of the Hawthorne Cancer Foundation by making a non-monetary donation of my time and the use of my image, name, and background. Towards that end, I give the Foundation permission to use the following for educational, promotional, and/or other purposes:

- Still and moving images of me.
- My name and other background information about me.
- Features prepared about and/or including me.

Consistent with and in consideration of my wish to promote the mission of the Foundation, I release the Foundation, its employees, board members, volunteers, licensees, agents, successors, and assigns from all liability for claims and demands relating to the use of these materials and/or arising out of this authorization and release. I acknowledge that the Foundation exclusively owns all rights to these materials irrespective of the form in which they are produced or used and may, in its sole discretion, determine how to use and/or license these materials.
